BRUM PHP

Why sponsor?

BrumPHP is a not for profit community event brought to you consistently by tech community lovers Jump24.

What will your sponsorship do?

With your help we will keep the event alive and keep on raising the Tech scene banner for Birmingham and surrounding areas.

What can I expect?

Silver £300

- Your logo on our website and social media associated with the specific event including stream overlay
- Opportunity to display your own standard sized (800mm x 2000mm max) pull up banner at the event.
- Inclusion in our social media campaign

Gold £500 (Silver benefits + the following)

- Your logo on promotional items
- Promotional banner provided by us - You would need to supply us with the assets
- 2min opening keynote to share your reasons for sponsorship
- Mention on Jump24's website (We will require a quote from a representative)
